

Comments from Oxfam New Zealand on the Panel's feedback

"Thank you for the feedback on our submission. We are pleased to have been part of the accountability charter for the first time, and have taken on board the comments received back. These will be especially helpful in preparing the next return as we have more information available which was not included in this return, but will be submitted in subsequent returns."

Comments sent by Grant Bayldon, Operations Director, on 21 December 2011